

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

FR. MICHAEL SAYS.....

Have you ever come to our Wednesday evening Eucharistic Adoration?

Every Wednesday, from 5:30pm to 8:30pm, we hold Eucharistic Adoration in Blessed Sacrament Church. This time of adoration started when I realized how many people were attending the monthly Wednesdays in Wintersville events. It seemed like a good idea to have an opportunity for those who wandered into the church to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist.

These evenings of adoration are also paired with a weekly rosary that has been going on for many years. Parishioners have been praying the rosary on Wednesdays at 7:00pm for as long as I have been here in Wintersville.

While there are always some people present for adoration and the rosary, the crowd has been fairly small for several months. I mention this, not to shame anyone into being there, but to encourage everyone to make use of the opportunity if it is a possibility for you.

Having a scheduled time of prayer every week can help to build a habit that spreads throughout your life. These two ways of prayer - Eucharistic Adoration and the rosary - have been recommended by saints and popes; they are two powerful ways of making time and space to be with the Lord.

So, if you have some free time on a Wednesday evening, come and make a visit with Jesus exposed on the altar. There is no better way to spend your time than with him!

May God bless you for your goodness to His Church for the week of Jan. 11th, 2026

Play That One Again

How many times have you sung the church song, “Here I Am, Lord”? If you grew up Catholic and are around my age (still 50!), the answer is more than you can count. The song that quotes various verses of Scripture is sung using guitar, piano, or organ, by cantors and choirs, in traditional and modern churches. It is truly a Catholic greatest hit of the modern Church. The question is how many times when singing the refrain have you really taken to heart what you were singing?

“Here I am, Lord; is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night.” Like the biblical figure Samuel, we are responding to the call of God by asking for clarification that we are indeed the one being called. We then follow up the question with a profound statement: “I will go if You lead me.” It is profound because we are pledging to our God that we are willing to go wherever He wants. We are accepting the challenge put forth in the U.S. Bishops’ pastoral letter, “Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response,” to become mature disciples who respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We have sung this pledge repeatedly for many years.

We never have any idea what God will call us to do and where to go. Sometimes the request can ask us for quite a lot. Hopefully, we will respond like a mature disciple. If not, maybe we should reflect more the next time this song is played. The melody will not allow for the words, “I will see if I am busy and then decide to go if you lead me.” Then again, I don’t want to sing that to God, the source of all life anyway. Do you?
